Please be advised that the Office of Sponsored Programs is now using an online system for applying for internal selection for Limited Submission funding opportunities. All applications must be submitted online and applications submitted via email will no longer be accepted. To apply for an internal nomination, applicants must log-in at Cornell University Limited Submissions using their Cornell netID.

Follow the internal selection guidelines carefully, including adherence to page limits. Proposals not following the guidelines and/or not responsive to the interests of the sponsor may be rejected from the internal competition without review. PIs submitting applications for limited submission competitions are responsible for ensuring they meet the eligibility requirements of the program and funder. For assistance with internal proposal development, including consultation on proposal strategy; identifying sponsor-specific proposal strategies; coordinating project team meetings; identification of additional campus resources; management of proposal schedule; drafting letters of commitment from Cornell and any partner institutions; and liaising between your proposal team and OSP, please contact Carmel Lee, Associate Director of Research Development (cll229@cornell.edu).
