Cornell OSP Roundtable - Current & Pending Management and Reporting with RASS
May 18th @ 9:30 am | Learn about reporting functionality in RASS, including basic searches, creating common reports using ad-hoc reporting, and explore Ithaca awards. The presenters will review how to create and manage Current & Pending information in RASS, including adding non-OSP projects, entering effort, removing projects that have not been funded, and printing Current & Pending reports.

FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

If you intend to apply to a funding opportunity, notify your College and/or Department research administrators or the Office of Sponsored Programs and Research Development (OSP).

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) – Pioneering Ideas: Exploring the Future to Build a Culture of Health
Applications accepting on rolling basis | This funding opportunity seeks proposals primed to impact health equity moving forward. RWJF is interested in ideas that address any of these four areas of focus: Future of Evidence; Future of Social Interaction; Future of Food; Future of Work. Ideas that might fall outside of these four focus areas, but which offer unique approaches to advancing health equity and our progress toward a Culture of Health, are also welcome.

Department of Energy WETO Offshore Wind 2023 Centers of Excellence FOA

Concept Papers due June 8, 2023 | The Office of Energy Efficiency and Renewable Energy (EERE) Wind Energy Technologies Office (WETO) seeks to seed one to two university-led Centers of Excellence to catalyze an education, research, and partnership ecosystem to address critical technology and deployment needs of offshore wind in the United States, and to develop the next generation of leadership for the U.S. offshore wind sector.

Cornell Einhorn Center Engaged Faculty Fellowship Program

Applications due June 23, 2023 | This year long program has two cohorts: Faculty Fellows in Engaged Learning work on developing a community-engaged course syllabus, and Faculty Fellows in Engaged Scholarship focus on publishing their work. All full-time faculty members and academic staff, including lecturers and extension faculty, are eligible.

National Center for Advancing Translational Sciences (NCATS) Awards Supporting Cutting-Edge Technologies for Translational Science (ASCETTS) (R21 Clinical Trials Not Allowed)

Applications due July 19, 2023 | The ASCETTS program will support the early-stage proof of concept, high-risk and potentially high-reward studies for feasibility and exploratory technology development, which can transform or significantly improve the efficiency of therapeutic development to achieve NCATS ultimate goals – more treatments to all people more quickly. The research proposed should be for the development of technology that can break new ground or extend present technology toward new directions or novel applications.

National Institute of Food and Agriculture (NIFA) Agriculture and Food Research Initiative Competitive Grants Program – Education and Workforce Development (AFRI EWD) FY 2023

Application due dates vary | The AFRI’s EWD focuses on developing the next generation of research, education, and extension professionals in the food and agricultural sciences. In 2023, USDA NIFA requests applications for the AFRI’s EWD program areas to support: (1) professional development opportunities for K-14 educational professionals; (2) non-formal education that cultivates food and agricultural interest in youth; (3) workforce training at community, junior, and technical colleges; (4) training of undergraduate students in research and extension; (5) fellowships for predoctoral candidates and postdoctoral
National Endowment for the Humanities Public Humanities Projects

Applications due August 9, 2023 | The Public Humanities Projects program supports projects that bring the ideas and insights of the humanities to life for general audiences through in-person, hybrid, or virtual programming. Projects must engage humanities scholarship to analyze significant themes in disciplines such as history, literature, ethics, and art history.

Russell Sage Foundation Pipeline Grants Competition

Applications due November 1, 2023 | This program is interested in research focused on structural barriers to economic mobility and how individuals, communities and state entities understand, navigate and challenge systemic inequalities. The Pipeline Grants initiative aims to promote the career advancement of its grantees. It will support early-career faculty and promote diversity by prioritizing applications from scholars who are underrepresented in the social sciences. This includes racial, ethnic, gender, disciplinary, institutional, and geographic diversity.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CITI Online Courses for Cornell Researchers (COI, IRB, RCR, Export Control)

Cornell utilizes the training program delivered by CITI (Collaborative Institutional Training Initiative) to provide some online courses in research ethics for Cornell students, faculty, and staff. Courses for IRB (Institutional Review Board for human participant research), COI (Financial Conflict of Interest for PHS-funded researchers), and RCR (Responsible Conduct of Research) are available from CITI.

NSF CAREER Proposal Tool Kit

This online Tool Kit contains resources to help PIs craft competitive NSF Faculty Early Career Development Program (CAREER) proposals. It includes workshop recordings, writing templates, guidance for creating Education Plans and Broader Impacts, information about upcoming NSF Division office hours, and more. Note: a Cornell netID login is required to access the website.

The Research Development (RD) team provides assistance with preparing prize nomination packages, and proposal development support for early career faculty investigators and proposal teams developing large-scale multi-disciplinary grants, center grants, and training grants. Services include identifying funding opportunities, proposal strategy consultation, coordinating project team meetings, and liaising between your proposal team and OSP. RD also provides funder-specific workshops and trainings.
