Limited Submissions are opportunities in which the sponsor limits the number of nominations or proposals (or sometimes other types of submissions like Concept Papers or Letters of Intent) that Cornell University may submit to a particular program. When this occurs, an internal selection process (typically an internal competition) is coordinated.

For further information about the internal process, answers to FAQs, and more, visit the Cornell Limited Submissions website. Please contact Limited Submissions if you intend to apply to a limited submission opportunity not listed below, missed an internal competition deadline, or have any questions. Unless otherwise noted in a competition announcement, internal competition deadlines are for 5:00 PM, and applications must be submitted via the competition web portal.

- NOTE: Weill Cornell Medicine has its own internal competitions for limited submissions. WCM investigators, please contact Florencia Marcucci in the WCM Office of the Research Dean.

Announcements

- Johnson & Johnson 2024 WiSTEM2D Scholars Award Program competition recalled. Effective August 2023, Johnson & Johnson plans to restructure the program, and will not be accepting applications this year. The funder aims to issue a call for applications for a 2025 cohort in the third quarter of FY 2024. Cornell’s internal competition for the anticipated 2024 submission cycle is cancelled. We will continue to monitor the program and announce a new internal competition in the future.

New Competitions

National Science Foundation (NSF) National Artificial Intelligence (AI) Research Institutes

Internal Deadline: August 21. This program supports the development of new AI Institutes that focus on one of the following themes: astronomical sciences, materials research and new methods for strengthening AI.
