LIMITED SUBMISSIONS

Limited Submissions are opportunities in which the sponsor limits the number of nominations or proposals (or sometimes other types of submissions like Concept Papers or Letters of Intent) that Cornell University may submit to a particular program. When this occurs, an internal selection process (typically an internal competition) is coordinated.

For further information about the internal process, answers to FAQs, and more, visit the Cornell Limited Submissions website. Please contact Limited Submissions if you intend to apply to a limited submission opportunity not listed below, missed an internal competition deadline, or have any questions. Unless otherwise noted in a competition announcement, internal competition deadlines are for 5:00 PM, and applications must be submitted via the competition web portal.

NOTE: Weill Cornell Medicine has its own internal competitions for limited submissions. WCM investigators, please contact Floencia Marcucci in the WCM Office of the Research Dean.

Announcements

- 2024 Packard Fellowships for Science and Engineering: There will be a virtual informational session on Friday, November 17th at 1-2pm ET for the upcoming Packard Fellowships competition. Dr. Éva Tardos, Packard Fellow and Advisory Panel member and Jacob Gould Schurman Professor of Computer Science, will answer questions about the program. Program guidelines and eligibility, the application process, and Cornell's internal selection process will also be covered. Prospective applicants are encouraged to attend. Click here to register for the webinar.
- NIH Modern Equipment for Shared-use Biomedical Research Facilities (R24): The National Institutes for Health (NIH) recently released a limited submission call for this program. It has a very short submission timeline, which does not allow sufficient time for an internal competition. Prospective applicants should submit an internal notice of interest, following the instructions provided here. An applicant will be approved on a first come, first serve basis.
